- ☐ Decide where a camera speaker belongs. The Echo Studio with Home Camera can show its room in the Alexa app, so think twice before putting it in a bedroom or a shared space.
 - ☐ Find the privacy button before you set it up. Amazon's US announcement says it turns off the microphones and the camera together.
 - ☐ Watch for the camera light. Amazon's US announcement says a light comes on whenever the Studio streams images or video to the cloud.
 - ☐ Check you have eero before counting on the Wi-Fi boost. Amazon's US announcement says the Echo Dot's extender adds coverage to an existing eero network.
 - ☐ Leave sleep sensing off unless you want it. Echo Time lets you turn it on or off in the Alexa app, or cut the microphone with the mute button.
 - ☐ Work out what Alexa+ will cost you. It's free during Early Access, then included with Prime, or A$29.99 a month without Prime.
