- ☐ Read the ACCC consultation letter with the owner or bookkeeper. Identify which proposed pricing and service provisions affect the shop's cash collection or delivery.
 - ☐ Check the cash-service agreement and recent bills. Ask the provider which proposed pricing category would apply, using annual cash-in-transit services bought from Linfox Armaguard rather than shop turnover.
 - ☐ Record the service and coverage the business needs. Compare those needs with the proposal's postcode coverage, access and complaint arrangements.
 - ☐ Prepare a specific consultation response for the owner to review. Separate the business's current agreement and experience from changes it wants the ACCC to consider.
 - ☐ Check confidentiality before submitting. Have the owner identify commercial details needing confidential treatment and substantiate any claim when submitting, because the ACCC intends to publish responses.
 - ☐ Send the approved response to cashdistribution@accc.gov.au. Undertaking responses close on 16 October 2026 at 4 pm AEDT, equivalent to 1 pm Perth; send views on interim directions as soon as possible.
