- ☐ Check whether your account can use Argon. Open the model list in the Gemini app. Google says models your plan doesn't include show a lock icon. Argon needs Google AI Pro (A$32.99 a month) or AI Ultra.
 - ☐ If you already pay for AI Pro or AI Ultra, check Argon has arrived. Google says it is rolling out, so it may not show in your model list yet.
 - ☐ Check the checkout total. Google's Australian page lists monthly prices without saying whether GST is included.
 - ☐ Save Argon for long, multi-step work. Google says more advanced models use more of your allowance, and it publishes no prompt count.
 - ☐ Ask your Workspace administrator before assuming a work account has it. Google hadn't said which Workspace editions include Argon when we checked on 14 October.
 - ☐ Verify figures, citations and recent events in its answers. Google's model card lists hallucinations and a March 2026 knowledge cutoff.
